

What is INNtegration?

INNtegration is a four-day interactive training program held at the corporate office in Irving, Texas. It's designed to connect, prepare, and support our franchise owners and general managers. This program reinforces and enhances concepts learned during initial opening and training.

Through a series of conversations and team activities with subject matter experts, you'll learn more about La Quinta's purpose, culture, and core values. Using this knowledge, you will be better prepared to deliver Here For You service to our guests and create a Here For Me environment for your team. Courses and activities are shown below.
